Saturday February 4th – Saturday March 17th

Exhibit "Byzantium: Splendour Perfected", Pro Art & Co., Edinburgh

The exhibition presents 1000 years of the Byzantine Empire's history, from its establishment in 330AD by Emperor Constantine to its fall in 1435. It shows the creation of the first Slavonic and East European nation states, their organisation under the influence of the domineering Byzantine Empire and their eventual acceptance of Christianity and late Roman civilization as a model for the formation of their own states. The aim of the exhibition is to look at the influence on European culture of Byzantium's multicultural heritage. Curated by Vesna Petkovic, Pro Art & Co
Opening hours Saturday 1:30 pm – 4:00 pm, Tuesday to Friday 11:00 am – 4:00 pm
Scotland-Russia Institute, 9 South College St, Edinburgh EH8 9AA
